

The Network for Black Professionals, in partnership with Black South West Network, cordially invites you to attend a special briefing and networking event funded by Department for Communities & Local Government on the Impact of Public Sector Cuts on Black & Minority Ethnic (BME) Professionals.

At this timely event to be held in Bristol on the 7th December, we will be hosting a buffet and drinks reception and a special briefing session focusing on how to prepare for organisational change caused by the deep budget cuts facing the public sector.

There will be great opportunities for networking with colleagues until 9:00pm, the opportunity for you to find out about forthcoming activities linked to our Tackling Racial Inequalities project and to:

- Find out about the Network for Black Professionals' plans and priorities in relation to tackling racial inequalities and how bespoke programmes can be rolled out in your organisation
- Learn how our award winning Black Leadership Initiative[®] programmes can help BME professionals to progress their careers
- Support development of Positive Action programmes for BME communities

Keynote Speakers:

Robin Landman OBE - CEO, Network for Black Professionals
Grace Haynes - HR Consultant
